

AUTISM SPECTRUM GUIDE ACCESS POINTS FOR THE LISTIES ICKYPEDIA

Show Summary, Key Themes and Positive Triggers

The Listies, are bringing their best-smelling, award winning book 'ICKYPEDIA: A Dictionary of Disgusting New Words' to the stage! ICKYPEDIA will be a seriously silly show that answers all of life's important questions: how do you take a SMELLFIE? What does POOETRY sound like? Who is the world's worst chef? What is a HOOTENGRANNY? And how does one avoid a FARTQUAKE? Anarchic, spontaneous and astoundingly funny ICKYPEDIA will uneducate and delight audiences everywhere it goes! Rated D for Disgusting. Find out more about the book here

Suitable for: Ages 4 - 80

Possible Triggers

Black Out?

No.

Flashing lights or strobe lighting?

Yes – Coloured flashing lights, but no strobe lighting.

Audience lighting during the show?

Yes – Low lighting during the show.

Sudden loud sounds?

No.

Loud noises?

No.

Repetitive noise?

No.

Drums?

No.

High pitched tones?

No.

Background music?

Yes – Music throughout the show.

Interaction and Participation

Audience invited on stage?

No, but there is audience participation at the end of the show.

Performer/s go into the audience?

Yes.

Workshop or manual activity?

No.

Are participants expected to use materials or tools?

No.

Is it okay for a parent or carer to support their children in participation?

Yes.

If a child is slower in their movements and responses, is their capacity for the child to participate?

Yes.

Attention Span

Show duration

1 hour.

Is there an intermission?

No.

Are children required to sit in one place during the show?

Yes.

Is it ok for children to make noise/ move around during the show?

Yes.

Senses, Emotions and Effects

Special Effects?

Yes – smoke machine.

Are balloons used?

No.

Do any of the characters express feelings of anger?

No.

Is the show dialogue driven?

Yes.

Other Show Notes

Venue

Riverside Theatre.

Access Points

- Interactive Performance
- Language: None
- Language: Easy
- Music
- Visual Cues