

RADICAL TRANSPARENCY SCHOOLS PACKAGE

Suitable for Years 8-12

COMPANY

WE ARE HERE

Directed by Emma Saunders

RADICAL TRANSPARENCY is a new rollicking work by the WE ARE HERE Company exploring the intersection between honesty and artifice, wild and tame, light and dark, raw and manufactured, and how on earth in this day and age we are going to present new dance work that is sustainable, wild, buoyant and afloat while it feels like everything is sinking.

This 1-hour workshop will reflect the working style of how the company works in the studio including warm ups, reworked Year-8 drama games turned into tricky dancing scores, improvisational and choreographic tasks that help develop and broaden dancing processes, followed by a series of performative tasks.
